

I understand that the NAB is attempting to limit the local content available on satellite radio. The very basis of our competitive society can not allow the NAB to become successful. Satellite radio content forces competitive actions between all radio frequency suppliers. Good for the economy, good for consumers, good for advertisers. Please do not allow one contingency to hamper the very fabric from which our business environment thrives.
Thank you,